

Real Estate – Retained life estate

Did you know you can transfer the deed of your personal residence or farm to us now and keep the right to use the property for your lifetime and that of your spouse? You will receive a current charitable deduction in an amount that is based upon your and your spouse's life expectancy and the value of the property.

Please consult your tax specialist or an attorney on the above information.